

Verleaner R. Lane, MA. is the Project Coordinator for Project Child as a Visiting Project Specialist contracted employee within the Institute for Legal, Legislative, and Policy Studies (ILLAPS) at the University of Illinois at Springfield. Verleaner has over 30 years of child welfare experience, working with children and families.

Verleaner is the author of “Why Didn’t He See the Beauty in Me?” In 2018, Verleaner started her own motivational speaking company Pour into V’s Vessel, Inc. Verleaner is a dedicated member of St. John Missionary Baptist Church “a church where everybody is somebody”. She is a proud alumnus of Lane Technical High School where she continues to work with the Black Alumni raising monies for scholarships. Verleaner completed her undergraduate work at Northern Illinois University where she obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology/Criminology. While at NIU she was the President of Northern Black Choir. Ms. Lane attended graduate studies at Governor State University with a Master of Art’s in Early Childhood Education.

You can find Verleaner being a servant working hard in the vineyard with the Top Ladies of Distinction, Inc. Will County Black Diamond Chapter a national professional and humanitarian organization, which she is one of the chartering members and currently the President. She is one of the co-founders and currently the President for Divas Down for The Cause, Inc. a charitable organization dedicated to supporting and empowering individuals; transforming their life challenges into opportunities for success. For the past 26 years, Verleaner has served on the Board of Directors for Lenore’s Kitchen Catering. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Xi Nu Omega Chapter. She is a member of Professional Woman Network International, Inc. New member of Children’s Advocacy Centers of Illinois Board of Directors. Verleaner is a native of Chicago and lives in South Holland, IL.